

NOTICE FOR RE-OPENING SCHOOL FOR CLASSES IX-XII

Dear Parents

Greetings from Warren!

This is to inform you that with the reference to the notification and guidelines issued by the Govt. of Rajasthan. In its compliance school is planning to reopen for classes IX-XII from 18.01.2021 (Monday).

Pl note school is following all the guidelines issued by the Govt. of Rajasthan but in the current pandemic conditions all the students have to follow the generic preventive measures.

Important Points to follow:

- Parents are requested to guide their ward to follow all the safety measures like always wear clean mask in the school premises, sanitize and wash their hands regularly etc.
- Parents may send their ward to school for classes with the written consent/permission to the school authorities that they have no objection of sending their ward to school and are sending at their own risk.
- Parents have to self pick and drop their ward to the school as school transport operator's inspite to our request has denied to provide conveyance during current pandemic time. School transportation will resume only after situation become normal.
- Parents are advised not to send their ward to school in case of following symptoms coughing, sneezing, fever, cold, low energy, dullness etc.
- All the students have to come in proper uniform.
- No student will be permitted in school without wearing mask. They must daily change or wash their face mask and have to carry sanitizer with them.
- Parents are requested to send their duly filled consent letter at the day of opening of school. Before that you have to send the consent by filling the Google form for which link is given below. Last date of submission of Google form is 15/Jan 21.
